LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome everyone to the 16th IWFFA Ptown Classic Women's Flag Football Tournament!

Ptown is such a great town, great restaurants, lots to do and easy to get to and this weekend you'll play some great flag football. I hope you picked up your bike at Bike Shack who is providing free bikes to all the teams.

Provincetown has supported the Ptown Classic for all these years. From its tourism office to local businesses, they have made it possible for us to afford the event. The team registration fees do not cover the tournament expenses. It is the local businesses who make the event possible with their financial support, donation or in kind service for our tournament. We ask each of you to do the same and support those businesses you see in this tournament program and to let those businesses know you are part of our flag football event!

Our best officials are here: Jane Eldredge, Renee Walker and head official Mark Walker. I myself am the tournament director, and this year we introduce a new assistant tournament director: Lelis Espinoza who travels from Honduras. If your wondering what happened to MJ, she just moved to Canada, and we will see her next year with her own Canadian team. The tournament starts off with registration Friday night at Way Down Town, a new venue. This year every player and coach will receive a souvenir tournament shirt. Games are played on Saturday and Sunday, our party Saturday night at the Underground (everyone's favorite) and our awards celebration takes place at: The Club, which is owned by Lea Delaria who is actress (Orange is the New Black), Jazz Singer and Comedian. Monday is our Dune Bike ride and tournament dinner at Fanizzi's (great Italian food) and you should have a wonderful time at all our social events and the games.

This year the IWFFA has been very busy promoting and uniting female flag football around the world. We held our first women's flag football festival in El Salvador during Easter holiday April 10 - 17. It was a week of tenting, cooking, women's workshops and flag football every day. Heaven! Mexico hosted our 1st annual women's flag football tournament and our Mexican flag football players will support and mentor 24 of our Afghanistan female flag football players when they relocate very soon to Mexico. Evacuating our Afghan flag football players and their families has been a year long effort for the IWFFA, and made possible by: Bridget Cambria (ex RI Hurricane Player) and her firm & Aldea working pro bono to make it happen. We will travel 70 Afghans, and need still 30 airline tickets. If you can help, please do, we are a 501c3, donations are tax deductible. Donate here: <https://gofund.me/607f586d>

We also traveled to Morocco where we held the first women's flag football tournament and started the IWFFA-MOROCCO WOMEN'S FLAG FOOTBALL LEAGUE! Women are in charge of course, and next year we continue to expand in other African countries. In Europe we entered Spain and established an annual IWFFA tournament (do you have a passport?) and the beginning of the IWFFA-Spain women's flag football league. In Sweden we found our site where we will hold all the professional women's flag football teams in the year 2025 (players who win IWFFA awards will be invited to play Pro), and we will host a second women's flag football festival in Sweden 2023. So our 2022 IWFFA promotional tour was phenomenal and it's success is due to the unity of the women in those countries. We are powerful when we are united. Contact our office if your interested to take a larger role in the IWFFA.

Thank you to all the volunteers, and persons who have helped to organize your teams and to all the players for bringing your best flag football talents onto the Motta Field.
