Flag Football Association

LETTER FROM IWFFA PRESIDENT

Welcome everyone to the 1st IWFFA - Boston Stars & Stripes Classic!

I commend: Alicia Ridge and Alex Eberhardt to have the vision to host the tournament and also to accept the positions as ambassadors to the IWFFA for the United States Region. After focusing on International countries for so long, next year the IWFFA will begin to expand its tournaments in the USA in the west coast and central USA. Once we have decided on dates for those tournaments, we will announce them.

This year, the IWFFA has been doing some great humanitarian work using flag football. The IWFFA was invited by Mexican humanitarian organizations to go to Mexico for the month of May to use flag football to train: refugees (which included working with our Afghan flag football players whom we got asylum for in Mexico just last year), women in shelters, battered women and orphaned girls. The purpose was to strengthen, empower and integrate these groups into the Mexican society. We were successful as we trained these women & girls and then combined them with experienced Mexican flag football teams to compete in our IWFFA-Mexico tournament. We also traveled to Cuba to support our flag football women and girls giving competition from our U.S. players who traveled and brought over 300 pounds of: food, clothes, and medical supplies which we collected from our Key West flag football league. It is heartbreaking the conditions in Cuba. This is just a sample of what our organization does. We are not just a sports organization, but we truly are a woman's organization, supporting one another, and using the sport of flag football to unite us all over the world. As I travel and am in Morocco now for our 2nd annual tournament, we expand IWFFA flag football in African cities: Casa Blanca and Tangier. I also travel to Switzerland and then Sweden where we host our 2nd women's flag football festival. There we lay out the groundwork for professional women's flag football to begin in 2025!

All of you are IWFFA members, I invite you to take a larger role in our organization to make a difference for women and girls. Contact our office, IWFFA@IWFFA.COM.

Many thanks to Alicia, Alex, and all the volunteers who have worked hard to make this event take place. Thank you players and your team organizers who brought your team to compete. Have fun, make new friends and play your best flag football!

Sincerely,
Diane Beruldsen
